Approximately 1 in 285 will be diagnosed with cancer before age 20.

An estimated 10,270 new cancer cases will be diagnosed among children 0-14 in the U.S. each year.

>80% survive at least 5 years after their diagnosis.

The most common types:
- Brain cancer
- Acute lymphocytic leukemia
- Bone and articular cartilage
- Thyroid and other endocrine glands
- Mesothelial
- Soft tissue
- Hodgkin lymphoma
- Thyroid carcinoma
- Brain and central nervous system
- Testicular germ cell tumors

Ages 1-19:
- 20% lower in 2014 than in 1999.
- 30% higher for males than females.

Ages 15-19:
- 30% of those will experience a serious late effect.
- 2/3 of cancer survivors will experience at least 1 late effect.

Mortality rates in 2014 for children ages 1-19:
- 30% higher for males than females.
- 20% lower in 2014 than in 1999.

http://www.thenccs.org/cancer-facts